We are very busy in VPK and adjusting to our routine nicely. The children are learning to care, share, and play fair.

What's Happening

- We have begun our first reading unit and the children are enjoying the story Little Red Riding Hood. The concepts are the color red, the letters Aa and Bb, drawing a line under from left to right, and same and different.
- Our weekly reader was about school rules and our Religion unit was the story about Jesus calling the apostles and being good friends. The children are busy learning how to walk in a quiet straight line, taking turns, and being a good listener.

Thanks for Sharing Your Little Ones With Us!
